

Familiarization program for Directors

The roles, rights and responsibilities of the Independent directors are incorporated in the terms and conditions associated with the appointment. Regular updates about major developments in the Industry and in the Company are provided. In addition, presentations are made on the business model of the Company.